

COOKING LESSONS- FAQ

What is your cancellation policy for classes?

You may cancel your registration for a class up to 5 days in advance of the class starting date and receive a full refund or credit towards another class or you may send someone in your place. (please let us know your substitute). To cancel a registration, please contact us at 860-355-0300 or email us at info@hunthillfarm.org

No refund or exchanges will be given on classes that are cancelled less than 5 days prior to the class. Hunt Hill Farm reserves the right to cancel any class that fails to attract sufficient enrollment or as a result of chef illness or inclement weather or other uncontrollable emergency. We will contact you by email or telephone as soon as possible and issue a full refund or a credit towards another class, which ever you prefer.

What should I wear?

We ask that you wear comfortable, casual clothing and flat comfortable shoes. Please do not wear open toed-shoes or sandals and please tie-back long hair.

What is the format of your classes?

We offer two different formats listed below. Classes are 2½ - 3 hours in length, unless indicated otherwise. You will be given a generous portion of all the dishes prepared during the class. We will also provide you with recipes. We are a BYOB facility. Please refrain from consuming wine or beer until we are finished cooking.

Hands On: These are full participation classes. Students take part in practicing techniques and preparing the menu items. Hands-on classes are limited to 18 people.

Demonstration: Designed as an observation class, participants watch while chefs explain and show recipe preparation and cooking techniques. Class is limited to 30 people.

Kids: Classes are limited to children between the ages of 7 to 12, unless otherwise stated.

Teens: Our teen classes are limited to the ages of 13 to 19.
